

PROCLAMATION

Marine Corps Historic Half Day May 15, 2016

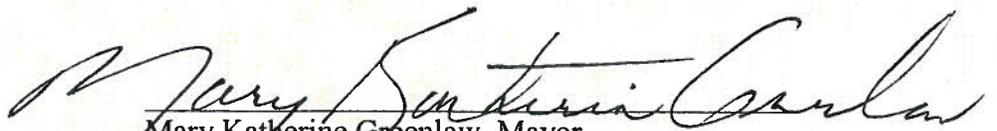

WHEREAS, on Sunday, May 15, 2016, the City of Fredericksburg and the United States Marine Corps will signal the start of the “Greatest Half Marathon in History” at the Marine Corps Historic Half; and

WHEREAS, thousands of runners and their families will attend Marine Corps Historic Half Weekend from May 13-15, bolstering commerce, tourism and volunteerism within the City of Fredericksburg; and

WHEREAS, the Marine Corps Historic Half will offer a weekend of physical activity and fun for participants, spectators, visitors and the citizens of Fredericksburg as thousands run through our scenic streets and neighborhoods.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mary Katherine Greenlaw, Mayor of Fredericksburg, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 15, 2016, Marine Corps Historic Half Day and I encourage the citizens of this community to cheer, volunteer and welcome the thousands of participants and visitors to our City.

I also urge Fredericksburg citizens to embrace the mission of the Marine Corps Marathon by leading a healthy and active lifestyle, generating community spirit and by supporting the men and women of the United States Marine Corps in this endeavor.

Mary Katherine Greenlaw, Mayor
Fredericksburg, Virginia

