The Memorials Advisory Commission of the City of Fredericksburg met on Wednesday, April 3, 2013, beginning at 3:45 p.m., in the second-floor conference room of City Hall.

Commission Attendees:

Huff, Benjamin Josiah Chair	Present
Pates, Jim	Present
Lloyd, Marilyn Holasek	Present
Moore, Nancy	Present
Warlick, Conrad	Present
Spencer, Michael	Absent

Commission Business:

Approval of Minutes: The Minutes of February 27, 2013 were unanimously approved.

Old Business:

New Commission Member: Betty Massey was approved by City Council as the new Commission member.

Mother's Day Event 2013:

Nancy Moore and Marilyn Lloyd reported on the event planning including approval of using the site of the monument, the Mayor of Fredericksburg giving a speech, our Commission Chairman, Benjamin Huff, moderating the program, and Jim Pates contacting Claudia Emerson to write a poem. Laura Galke will be the speaker and we collected money to pay her a honorarium. We eliminated having music at the event. The city will provide the chairs and the battery operated speaker. We were going to plan on an alternate rain date meeting place and Nancy Moore was going to call the Free Lance Star, and Marilyn Lloyd the Christian Church across the street. Michael Spencer's students were going to conduct a tour of the cottage after the event, and the Washington Heritage Museum would offer a free tour of The Mary Washington House and refreshments after the event.

We discussed possible publicity through the Visitors Center, Front Porch Magazine, and the Washington Heritage Website.

Update on Civil Rights Memorial Commemoration:

Marguerite Young will get some people to attend the June Meeting.

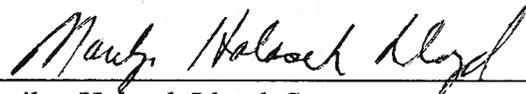

Wall of Honor:

We discussed having an annotated bibliography written about all the people on the wall of honor that could be read while the people were viewing the wall of honor.

New Business:

Next Meeting Scheduled: Wednesday, June 19, 2013

Meeting Adjourned: There being no further business to come before the Commission at this time, the meeting was adjourned at 4:30p.m.

Marilyn Holasek Lloyd, Secretary
