Polling Place Quick Reference guide for Campaigns

A campaign is responsible for its materials and representatives.

Code of Virginia 24.2-604, 24.2-607, 24.2-639, and 24.2-655

- Campaigns and candidates may not set up materials prior to the close of business the day before Election Day.
- Campaigns and candidates must be 40 feet outside of any entrance in which voting takes place.
- Campaigns and candidates may not hinder or delay a person entering or leaving the polling place.
- Campaigns and candidates may not inhibit the flow of vehicle or pedestrian traffic, block sidewalks, handicap parking spots, or curbside voting access at any time.
- Campaigns and candidates must not utilize loudspeakers within 300 ft. of the polling place.
- Campaigns and candidates must remove all materials from the polling place: chairs, tables, signs, literature, etc. at the close of polls on Election Day.
- Campaigns and Candidates should not park in spaces that serve the voters of that polling place.
- Campaigns and candidates should take direction from the Officers of Election on duty. The Electoral Board and/or the General Registrar may be contacted in cases of disagreement.
- Campaigns and candidates must adhere to all laws and ordinances.
